

Triumph Dolomite Club - Privacy Statement

To be able to provide services to members and conform to GDPR regulations the Triumph Dolomite Club (hereafter known as "The Club") needs to hold and use certain personal data. This data will take the form of a person's membership number, name, address, e-mail and phone details. These details will have been supplied to us by the person in question via their application form. The data will NOT have been acquired via a third party

The Data Controller is the Club's Membership Team. The reason for collecting this information is to allow the Club to contact members for Club purposes only. These details will not be shared with any third party except our printers who print and distribute the magazine known as Dolly Mixture solely so that they may provide Club members with the magazine.

Only the Executive Committee and the Membership Team have access to your data for the purposes of contacting you regarding Club matters.

Club Members have the right to see their data held by the Club and may ask the Data Controller to correct any errors. This must be done in a timely manner, and the Club member must be contacted to confirm this has happened.

Club Members have the right to request that their details are removed from the database, however this will mean you lose the right to continue to be a member of the Club and your membership will cease immediately.

The Club does not require a Data Protection Officer as the information held is of a basic nature.

The Club does not hold details of financial payments such as card numbers which are all processed securely by Square-Up and PayPal. Details of any other non-electronic payment means are held physically securely and will be destroyed as soon as no longer needed.

The Triumph Dolomite Club is based in the United Kingdom and is run by an Executive Committee of its members for its membership, there are no paid members on the Executive Committee. Although we actively encourage members from overseas, all our rules and regulations are controlled and established in the UK.
